Numb. 8460.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday Auguſt 20. to Saturday Auguſt 24. 1745.

Conſtantinople, July 11, N. S.

ALL the News we have from Perſia is in general, that the Shaugh is retired again of his own Accord from the Turkiſh Frontiers, which ſeems to give great Satisfaction here.

Florence, Auguſt 10, N. S. The great Road from Rome to Lorretto, and from thence to Boulogna, is repairing, the Pope intending to paſs that Way next Year, and to ſtay at this laſt Place the whole Summer, in order to make ſeveral new Saints, and to diſpoſe of the Cardinals Hats that are vacant.

Venice, Auguſt 13, N. S. We have Advice here, that Serravalle ſurrender'd the 3d Inſtant, and the Garriſon, conſiſting of only 150 Invalids, were made Priſoners of War. They were ſo old and ſo maimed, that Carts were allow'd them to Alexandria. The Trenches were open'd before Tortona on the 8th, and we hear that the Duke of Modena and Marſhal Maillebois having been to reconnoitre the Ground, and coming too near the Works, were in Danger from the Cannon which fired upon them. Marſhal Maillebois had his Horſe killed, and received ſome Hurt in his Fall. A Criminal at Rome having taken Refuge in the Venetian Ambaſſador's Liſt, the Sbirri attempted to ſeize him, in which they were oppoſed by the Venetian Ambaſſador's Servants, and a Fray enſued, in which the Ambaſſador's Porter was wounded. To reſent this Inſult the next Day, ſome Perſons in the Ambaſſador's Livery killed the Barigello, and wounded ſome of the Sbirri. The Republick is alſo engaged in another Conteſt with the Pope about their Confines. Some of the Pope's Troops in the Ferrareſe have lately ſurpriſed a ſmall Fort at Porto Goro, upon Pretence of its being built upon the Eccleſiaſtical State. The Venetians erected this a few Years ago upon a Point of this Iſland, which commands one of the Mouths of the Po, to prevent Contraband, and for the ſtricter Obſervation of Quarantine, during the Time of the Plague in the Kingdom of Naples. In order to retake it, they have ſent this Week from Venice two Galliots, to cut off the Communication by Sea, and order'd 500 Men from Rovigo, to attack it by Land.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 17, N. S. Silver Medals have been ſtruck upon the Occaſion of the Birth of Prince Chriſtian, and one given to each of the Foreign Miniſters here. Lieutenant Colonel Pleſſe, youngeſt Son to the Privy-Counſellor, and late Miniſter of that Name, has received a Chamberlain's Key. A Frigate of 40 Guns is now fitting out to ſail for the Iſland of St. Thomas in America. A Ruſſian Frigate, ſent out in Queſt of Dagenaer, arrived here Yeſterday. She did not meet with him in her Cruize; and we have now a current Report, that his Men (who were all either decoy'd or forced) have deſerted him, and that having run the Ship a-ground on the Coaſt near Dantzick, he had left her, and was fled into a Poliſh Convent.

Dreſden, Auguſt 20, N. S. It was expected here that the Pruſſians would have invaded this Country To-day the 20th; but their real Deſign is not yet diſcovered. It is ſaid, that in Caſe we are attacked, the Duke of Weiſſenfels will march with a Detachment of about 15000 Auſtrians and Saxons againſt the Pruſſians. A Regiment or two of Uhlans are already detached. His Highneſs returned to the Army upon the 17th, in a tolerable State of Health. The Saxons have 800 Men at Wittenburg; which Place, though it be not in a good State of Defence, cannot yet be taken without Cannon.

Berlin, Auguſt 21, N. S. Prince Thieri of Deſſau ſet out early Yeſterday Morning for Magdebourg, from whence it is concluded here, that the Pruſſian Infantry would march Yeſterday into the Camp marked out between Halle and Lobechin. An Hoſpital is building at Halle, and a Magazine at Halbertſtatt. Beſides the ſtrong Garriſon which is at Croſſen, it is ſaid a Camp will be formed between that Town and Franckfort, in order to ſecure the Communication with Sileſia. It is alſo given out, that his Pruſſian Majeſty intends to draw his whole Army out of Bohemia, in order to form a Line in Sileſia along the Upper and Lower Luſatia. Great Preparations are making for the Defence of this Capital. Hellerman's Battalion will encamp in the Garden behind the Palace, and Bredow's two Battalions will do the ſame in two different Places in the Town. The Battalion of Guards, which remain'd at Potſdam, is expected here, as alſo five Squadrons of Huſſars. The Butchers and Bakers and other Tradeſmen are to be form'd into a Regiment of Cavalry, and have received Orders to provide themſelves with with Horſes, and the Burghers are to act as Infantry.

Berlin, Auguſt 24, N. S. The Miniſtry here have demanded of the Court of Dreſden a free Paſſage for ſome Troops (the Number of which was not ſpecified, nor the Regiments) through the Territories of Saxony from Treuenbritzen to Coſwick, which his Poliſh Majeſty immediately granted. This Corps arrived the Day before Yeſterday at Tettau, and will this Day be at Treuenbritzen. The Manifeſto, which was expected to have been publiſhed the Day before Yeſterday, has not yet made its Appearance. The Magdebourg Corps was ſtill in their Cantonments upon the 22d of this Month. We have Advice here, that the Inſurgents have formed a Camp in the Plain from Landsberg to Warte, from whence they have ſent out ſmall Detachments into all the neighbouring Country. Baron Danckelman is preparing to ſet out for the Diet of Election at Franckfort. This Moment we have received an Account, that the Inſurgents have pillaged Schweidnitz. The three Battalions which are in Garriſon here, with a Regiment of Militia, will encamp To-morrow before the Gates of this Town, where the greateſt Danger is to be apprehended.

Hague, Auguſt 27, N. S. This Day the News arrived here, that Oſtend ſurrendered on Monday laſt the 23d Inſtant. As to the Capitulation, it is as yet only known in general, that the whole Garriſon is to march out with all military Honours, and is at full Liberty to ſerve unconditionally, as ſoon as they arrive at St. Ghilain. The ſame Day Marſhal Saxe ſent a large Detachment, with ſome Cannon, to make an Attempt upon the Caſtle of Grimberg in the Neighbourhood of Vilvorde. Upon the timely Arrival of a Reinforcement from our Army, the French abandoned that Enterprize; but carried off with them an advanced Poſt of about 100 Hanoverians. Letters from the French Head Quarters ſay, the King was to go to Oſtend as Yeſterday, and from thence directly to Paris.

Tower of London, Auguſt 17, 1745.

The Principal Officers of his Majeſty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, that whoſoever will diſcover to them any Arms concealed in any Part of Great Britain, ſo as the ſame may be properly ſecured till his Majeſty's Pleaſure ſhall be known therein, the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery ſhall be concealed, if required, and he or they ſhall receive as a Reward for the ſame, after the Rate of Twenty Five Pounds for every One Hundred Arms, and ſo in Proportion be the Number more or leſs.

By Order of the Board,

Charles Buſh.

By the Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy.

Whereas an Hoſpital is intended to be built near Goſport, in the County of Southampton, for the Reception of Sick Men belonging to his Majeſty's Fleet: Theſe are to give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 4th of September next, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, We ſhall be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as may be willing to undertake the ſeveral Works of the ſaid Building, and that they may attend at the ſaid Time with their Propoſals in Writing; and for their further Information, a Plan of the Hoſpital, with a Draught of the Contract and Principal Dimenſions may be viewed in the Office of the Clerk of the Acts of his Majeſty's Navy, from the 23d Inſtant until the Time of Treaty. Dated at the Navy Office, the 14th of Auguſt, 1745.

General Poſt-Office, Auguſt 24, 1745.

Whereas the Communication with Flanders, by the Way of Oſtend, is interrupted, and for the preſent at an End; Publick Notice is hereby given to all Merchants and others whom it may concern, That as their Letters for the ſeveral Parts and Provinces of the Auſtrian Netherlands are now, of Neceſſity, to be forwarded by the Way of Holland, it will be moſt proper for them to incloſe their Letters and Packets, or recommend them to ſuch as may be their Friends or Correſpondents in Holland, from thence to be forwarded to the Places they are deſigned for in the Netherlands aforeſaid; as alſo that it will be moſt ſafe and convenient for them, that the Anſwers, in Return to their ſaid Letters, ſhould be ſent under Cover to Holland, to be forwarded from thence to this Office.

But in regard to the Correſpondence with the Army; all Perſons are hereby to take Notice, That their Letters, directed for any Perſon or Perſons in the ſame, will be received at this Office, and from hence forwarded to the Army, in the Manner hitherto obſerved, a proper Method of conveying the Army Letters directly from hence, having been ſettled by the Way of Holland, in Conformity to the Uſages in regard thereto, during the Wars of King William and Queen Anne.

By Command of the Poſt-maſter General,

George Shelvocke, Sec.

A Quarterly General Court of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, will be held at their Office in Dean's Yard, Weſtminſter, on Monday the 2d of September next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon.
